

Concord Carlisle Newcomers' Club

March 2010

To Our Members:

And so it begins, in like a lion out like a lamb! Of course that means we are talking about March! And for the CCNC at least the first half of that old proverb is accurate!

As mentioned last month, we have 2 events kicking off the month. First there's the Luncheon and Program's Tea and Art event on March 2nd, and then there's the Wine Tasting on March 7th! Both events are limited so get your names in fast!

After such an auspicious beginning we all need to beware March 15th otherwise known as the Ides of March! The month will be half over and there's still so much more to do. The Needlework, Men's Poker, and Daytime Bridge clubs will only be half way through their monthly gatherings.

The Daytime and the Evening book clubs will be both reading and discussing THE HELP by Kathryn Stockett, a very popular book selection! And ironically the Daytime club will meet before the ides while the Evening group meets after.

March also has one of my personal favorite celebrations, the wearing (yes and the typing) of the green! Éireann go Bráth or the more Americanized version, Erin Go Bragh! Anyway way you say it, Ireland Forever! And Happy St. Patrick's Day!

March brings another gathering of the Gourmet Club, and this month they are enjoying Cambodian cuisine from The Elephant Walk. Good thing editorial license doesn't carry over to selecting menus or they would have ended up with corned beef and cabbage or some other traditional Irish dish, and unfortunately, Ireland is not known for its cuisine. So be sure to raise a pint of beer or cider!

And now having used up all of my March-centric comments I will go out like a lamb, at least until next month!
