

CONCORD-CARLISLE NEWCOMERS CLUB

Newsletter October 2011

To the Members:

October should be a fun month for the whole CCNC family.

The CCNC will be having a "Meet and Greet" at The Smiling Duck Café located inside Fern's Country Store. If you haven't been to Fern's recently here is a good opportunity to see the wine shop and the café. Everyone is invited. If you know of anyone that might be interested in joining bring them along with you. Many of the Groups will have information available so new members can find activities that interest them.

And, in case you haven't heard yet, the Board removed the time limit on membership. So you can be a member for as long as you want. So if you know of any past members that might want to rejoin the group they are welcome to come by and rejoin as well.

For members interested in the Gourmet Group note that the additional $10 fee for this group has also been eliminated. Electronic communications has virtually eliminated the costs of distributing the menus so the additional fee is no longer needed. Also the Gourmet Group has a new Chairperson, Ashley Ware has taken over for this year. You can contact her at ashleyware@me.com

The Men's Poker Group has stopped meeting, but that doesn't mean the games are over! Sven Olson has offered to restart a Poker Group. Anyone interested in joining can contact him at sven.a.olson@chase.com

Erin Fife, who just recently joined the CCNC, has offered to start a Mahjong Group. Mahjong is kind of like a card game, but with domino-like tiles instead of cards. Erin learned to play while living in Asia and has a table and set of tiles. She'd love to teach anyone interested -- groups of 4 are best, but she could do sessions of more than 4, especially while folks are learning. They would meet in the evenings at her house in West Concord. The exact nights will be determined after the group forms. Anyone interested in Mahjong contact Erin at ejfife@gmail.com

The Couples Reading Group has asked that anyone interested in joining should contact either Kathy Cuocolo at kcuocolo@comcast.net or Kim Reid at reid.dkim@gmail.com. Their first book for this year is Rutherford's Sarum.

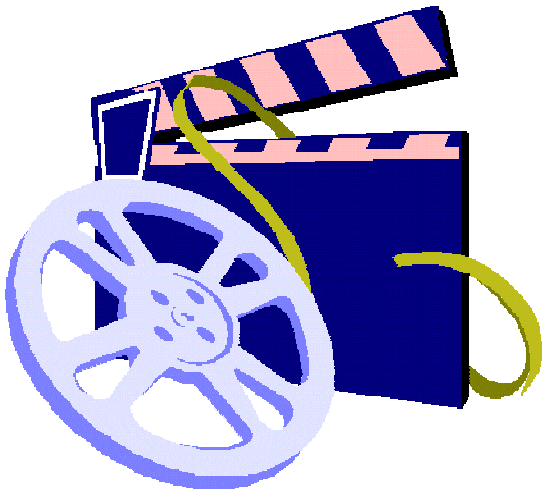

On October 29th there will be a CCNC Halloween Party at the Concord Children's Center. It will start at 4:00 PM and everyone is invited. There will be costumes, games and trick-or-treating. Janine Olson is organizing this event so if you have any questions contact her at Janine.Olson@morganstanleysmithbarney.com

Third Wednesday Movie Group

The fall movie season is upon us with a really exciting collection of Hollywood feature films, documentaries, and foreign movies. We (usually) meet on the third Wednesday of each month, and shoot for a noon-ish showtime to allow parents to pick up kids from school. Our next outing will be Wednesday, October 19.

Don't worry that you may not fit in with a snooty group of angst-ridden artistes who think "Aguirre the Wrath of God" was the apex of narrative filmmaking. We are just a bunch of folks who love movies, all kinds of movies. (The only exception might be Jerry Bruckheimer-deafening explosion-interminable car chase movies, which I encourage you to view as a bonding experience with your teenage sons or nephews.)

Sometimes we meet at my house for a Netflix selection such as "The Secrets in Their Eyes", the 2009 Oscar winner from Argentina. More often, we hit the local theaters. Our only problem is choosing just one movie a month to see together--so many good movies, so little time! Even if you can't always make the Third Wednesday, I encourage you to join up. You'll meet other people who share your love of movies. After all, you can always call each other up and just GO, any old time!

If you'd like to be added to the email distribution list, and come along on some or all of our outings, please send a note to Susan Jancourtz, sjancourtz@yahoo.com.

The more, the merrier!

Needlework Group

What better way to enjoy our beautiful New England fall than to start a new needlework project, catch up on an old one, or perhaps learn a new skill! Whatever your craft--sewing, knitting, quilting, cross-stitch, to name just a few--you are welcome to join us as we stitch, converse, and enjoy the company of other needleworkers. This is a good place to put the finishing touches on those Halloween costumes!

We hope to see you at the home of Alix Taylor
42 Windingwood Lane Lincoln
781-257-5062
on the 21st.

If you would like an automatic reminder of the time and place of our semi-monthly get-togethers, as well as changes that occur after the newsletter goes to print, send an e-mail to Susan (above).
